FOR THE FALL AND WINTER SEASON IN MEN'S AND BOYS

CLOTHING

We are prepared to clothe you with the Lowest-Priced, right-made, absolutely all-wool (labeled in America) high-grade made, as it is of the famous "Vitalis" Brand, the only Ready-to-Wear (Clothing Tailored on a strictly scientific basis in clean, well-ventilated workrooms. Perfect fitting and wear-resisting, because the inside, the "Vitalis," the very life of the garment is carded in making represents the expenditure of time and thought, and is a decided contrast to the inferior seen in ordinary Ready-to-Wear Clothing. The fabrics we select are of the very newest design and will be seen this season. Many confined exclusively to us, in the face of the above facts.

The most extraordinary feature combining our great offerings is, that we can and do sell our clothing at less money than elsewhere.

How can we afford to sell such high-grade clothing for less money than elsewhere? Our answer is pure and simple: Ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans. Our clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business.

Colonel Caperton in Oil.

The many friends of Col. J. W. Caperton are a unit upon the subject of the excellence of the oil portrait of that gentleman, which has been on exhibition in the Moberly show window.

His opinion is that it is a speaking likeness, as perfect as the brush could portray, certainly the finest portrait ever exhibited here. Col. Caperton's pose is a characteristic one and his expression is so natural that the handsome gift frame seems to encase the original. It must be gratifying to Col.

Caperton that no word of criticism has been uttered, but that every one praises the portrait in ever lasting terms. It is the work of that famous artist, Mr. A. O.

rests that are in use already, do a great deal of good in the already lighted part of the city, but would require two gas pipes and an air light to render travel safe in several portions of our city—for instance on Fifth street, between C. D. Chennault's corner and Munsey's residence. The Council promised to light this avenue a year ago.

Messieurs one-fifth of the population of Richmond are without light to guide them along this dark and dangerous thoroughfare—dangerous because of the narrow elevated footwalk that is out of repair.

Brown on Top, Taylor Underneath.

The CLIMAX has on exhibition a Brown campaign button that should be seen by all who do not yet think that the bolting ex-Democrat is running in the interest of the Republic (labeled this year). The Brown campaign has been scrapped off the face of the button and stands out in bold relief the well known features of President McKinley.

What have the purificationists to say to this?

Here is another piece of evidence:

The Hon. W. O. Rodes, of Bowling

Green, and during a speech at Franklin by Brown uttered a speech at his request by men in the audience, that underneath the brown covering lay a picture of Taylor, the republican candidate for governor, which is proof positive that Brown is running in the interest of Taylor, if any doubt remains of a proposition too patent almost for controversy.

City Ordinances.

Whereas the city of Richmond, Ky., in July, 1890, issued bonds of said city to the extent of $25,000 to secure funds for erection of a public school building, and whereas a part of said bonds are Complimentary Benefit to Mr. Hubbert.

Rev. T. S. Hubbert has consented to deliver his brilliant lecture, "A Home of the Standard of the Song, or Home, Sweet Home." New stories, both humorous and pathetic, have been added since the lecture was given last March.

The lecture will take place in Masonic Temple Hall, at 8 p. m., on next Friday evening. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. This is Richmond's tribute to a popular minister.

Child Killed to Death.

A more terrible death to a child is hardly conceivable than that from a horse kick. Sidney Oldham, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. Tom Oldham, near this city, had been playing in the yard where some horses were grazing, and when a member of the household went to drive the horses out he de-covered the body of the little girl lying in the weeds where the horse had kicked her into insensibility. Death came two days later, although consciousness returned after a surgical operation.

The parents have the sympathy of all in this awful calamity. The funeral occurred at the home and it was remarked that the time that there never was a larger funeral concourse over a child than this one. Mr. Oldham, who is one of the most upright and industrious citizens of Madison, and his wife, who was a Miss Bauman, are plunged in grief that is pitiable to behold.

A Big Production. A Pullman Car With

Thirty People. Company to Organize Here.

What promises to be one of the largest theatrical organizations that will tour the South this season is being organized in this city and will open early in October. The company will be under the management of Messrs. R.

Hilmebaugh and Nat. Riese, both of whom are well known as progressive men of sound business judgment.

About thirty-five people will be carried. The play to be presented is called "A Jay From Javille," one of those hilarious novel comedies which cannot but be successful. A special feature will be made of the band, which will consist of 18 pieces and the parade will be given daily will include 25 people (all made up as farmers) which is undoubtedly the largest parade ever given by a show of the kind.

Messrs. Hilmebaugh and Riese have purchased a Pullman palace car in which the company will travel. It arrived here last Friday and has been placed on the Mill track where scores of visitors have been entertained by Mr.

and Mrs. Riese. This car is certainly a model of elegance, being fully equipped with all the modern conveniences for which the Pullman cars are noted.

Mr. Riese says he has been glad to enter his friends on the grand tour from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m.—continually—and no doubt many will accept the invitation.

A long tour has been booked which will include all the principal cities in the South, and judging from what is known of the enterprise, it will be a business like manner in which the preparations are being conducted, and the capital that is behind them, a very successful season can safely be predicated for "A Jay From Javille."

Mon. W. B. Smith is all Right.

The changes made by the State Commission in the speaking appointments of Hon. W. B. Smith, of this city, occur-ing simultaneously with the announcement in the Louisville Dispatch that Mr. Smith would not be asked to speak again after his utterance at Ovingdale, gave rise in some quarters to the report that the committee no longer desired the services of an orator who would publicly announce his willingness to be "hanged to the nearest limb any man who would attempt to falsify the truth of the election. For several days Mr. Smith was written by Brown and Brown beneath with having been turned down by the Goebel committee for making that bold assertion, and now the Pantheograph rubs to the front with a certificate of good character, thus supposed disgraced Goebel.

Goebel, however, is given up, and his conviction pronounced by all honest men of all parties.
